ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 46 one-hitters over the years, the most recent being by Catfish Hunter at Texas on May 31, 1975, in which Cesar Tovar got a 6th inning single. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 for the Yankees, and both men participated in a fourth. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two one-hitters, with one of Bevens' coming in a World Series. The Yankees have been one-hit 40 times, most recently on August 29, 1973 in California by Nolan Ryan, with Thurman Munson collecting a first inning single. The Yankees have been one-hit 12 times since they were last no-hit in 1958. Joe Wood and Earl Hamilton are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm also one-hit the Yanks in 1959. Horace Clarke is the only Yankee to twice serve as a spoiler, breaking up no-hitters by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970, Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters.

FREQUENTLY-ASKED QUESTIONS . . .

Qualifications for Batting Championship—highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

EXCEPTION: However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at bats, then that player shall be awarded the batting championship.

Qualifications for Pitching Champion—lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Player Limits—40 until opening day when number must be reduced to 25 until September 1st when it again becomes 40.

Waiver and Draft Prices

Waiver Price is $20,000
Major League Draft Price is 25,000

Inter-League Trading—from midnight, 5th day after World Series, until midnight on last scheduled day of Winter Meetings.

Within League

Midnight, last day of season—midnight, June 15.

Qualifications for a Save—A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save if he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club and he is not the winning pitcher and he enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs for at least one inning or he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck, or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

To Determine Batting Average—Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

To Determine Earned Run Average—Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take this number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

League Curfew

All night games must be called at 1:00 A.M. local time. If an inning is started prior to 1:00 A.M. local time, it can be completed. A game called at the end of a completed inning with the score tied after nine innings is a suspended game.

Disabled List

Pitchers must be on for a minimum of 21 days. All other players may be placed on a 15 day list.

Qualifications for a "Rookie"—A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (A) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues or (B) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

"Magic Number"—Determine number of games to be played . . . add 1 . . . subtract number of games ahead in lost column from closest opponent.

YANKEE STADIUM GROUND RULES

Foul poles are outside the playing field. Any batted ball hitting foul pole above fence line is a home run. Ball sticking in or going through wire screen in front of bleachers—two bases. Bat racks are within the dugouts.

Any thrown ball hitting railing or dugout foundation and rebounding on field is in play. Ball going into dugout or hitting other parts of dugout—out of play.

FACTS ABOUT THE "NEW" YANKEE STADIUM

— Seating capacity 54,028.
— Reconstruction project Oct. 1973-April 1976.
— All seats now offer fully unobstructed views.
— Playing surface remains natural grass.
— Scoreboard, with original facade design, features "Telscreen."
— Escalators for fans at all three gates.
— Hall of Fame Plaza, pedestrian mall on what was E. 157th St.
— Beautiful new Stadium club and public cafeteria.
— Monuments and plaques in Memorial Park section between bullpens (monuments honor Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Miller Huggins; plaques honor Jacob Ruppert, Edward Barrow, Joe DiMaggio, Mickey Mantle, Casey Stengel, Joe McCarthy [for installation in 1976], and the Mass for Peace by Pope Paul VI.)
— All new lighting and sound system, most modern known.
— Baseball bat-shaped boilerstack outside of Stadium.
— Gymnasium and indoor pitching machines for player's use.
— Modern press facilities and dugout photo extensions.
— New Yankee offices adjoining press level, overlooking field.
— Parking for 6900 cars in modern garages, lots and decks.

YANKEES ON THE AIR . . . For the 26th consecutive year, Yankee baseball is being televised over WPIX Channel 11 in New York. The flagship radio station is WMCA 570 on the AM dial. A large TV-radio network spans five states. Phil Rizzuto, considered the greatest shortstop in Yankee history, celebrates his 20th season behind a Yankee mike in 1976. Phil was the Most Valuable Player in the American League in 1950. He's also heard over the CBS radio network . . . Frank Messer is in his ninth season with the Yankees, and his 13th of major league baseball broadcasting . . . Bill White, former National League first base star, is a six-year broadcast veteran with the Yankees.

BEHIND THE SCENES . . . Pete Sheehy, equipment manager and chief of the Yankee clubhouse is in his 50th year with the Yankees, easily making him the all-time Yankee service champion. To commemorate that outstanding achievement, the home clubhouse in the new Yankee Stadium was officially designated as The Sheehy Clubhouse on Old Timers' Day last year . . . The Yankee trainer is Gene Monahan, 31, now in his fourth year with the club following service through the Yankee minor league system beginning at Fort Lauderdale in 1962 . . . Dr. Edward Crane becomes the Yankee team physician in 1976, succeeding the retired Dr. Sidney Gaynor. Dr. Crane is an orthopedic surgeon affiliated with Lenox Hill Hospital.

MARTIN, ALFRED MANUEL "Billy" (Manager) #1

Born on May 16, 1928 in Berkeley, California. Resides in Arlington, Texas. Married Gretchen Winkler 10/7/59. Children: Billy Joe (11).

Billy returned to the Yankee organization on August 2, 1975 as manager, 18 years and six weeks after he was traded away . . . he was a sparkplug second baseman who played in five World Series for the Yankees, and a classic example of a man who maximized his abilities just by wearing the Yankee uniform . . . after he was traded, he played in rapid succession for the Athletics, Tigers, Indians, Reds, Braves and Twins, and was only an ordinary performer . . . a super star in World Series play, with a lifetime .333 average . . . made a famous catch of a short pop hit by Jackie Robinson to save the 1952 World Championship for the Yankees . . . a year later, he won the Babe Ruth Award by hitting .500 with 12-24 . . . born Alfred Manuel Pesano in Berkeley of Italian-Portuguese parents, but his father deserted when he was only eight months old . . . after graduating from Berkeley High in 1946, the Oakland Oaks of the Pacific Coast League signed him . . . farmed out to Phoenix of the Arizona-Texas League in 1947 and led league in hitting (.392), hits (230), doubles (48), and runs batted in (174) . . . finished the year under Casey Stengel at Oakland, and again under Casey in 1948, the Oaks winning two pennants . . . in 1950, he and Jackie Jensen were purchased by the Yankees, and after starting the season, in Kansas City (A.A.) Billy moved up to New York to play in 34 games as a utility infielder . . . served the same role in 1951, appearing in his first Series . . . became a regular in 1952, and remained so until he was traded, with time out for military service for the entire 1954 season, and most of 1955 . . . a close friend of Mickey Mantle and Whitey Ford since they played together for the Yankees . . . After his playing career ended in 1961, he scouted for Minnesota (1962-64), and became a Twins' coach in 1965, the year they unseated New York as American League champions . . . he remained third base coach until May 28, 1968, when he went to Denver to begin his managing career . . . and returned to Minnesota in 1969 with the Twins' job, leading the club to the first Western Division Title . . . Lost the Championship Series and his job, sat out the 1970 season, and got the Detroit Tigers' job in 1971, leading the club to the 1972 Eastern Division Championship . . . lost that job on September 1, 1973, but a week later was hired by the Texas Rangers, whom he led to a strong second place finish in 1973 . . . fired by Texas on July 21, 1975 with the club in fourth place, and took over the Yankees with the team's record 53-51, third place, ten games out . . . Colorful, fiery, and controversial, Billy enjoys working out with the team, or even taking the coaching lines at third base at times . . . has a reputation for running a game and setting the tempo of a team more than most managers . . . was the A.P. and U.P.I. Manager of the Year in 1974 . . . hobby is American history, with a special expertise on the Civil War.

BERGMAN, DAVID BRUCE (1B-OF) #54

6-2, 185. Born on June 6, 1953 in Evanston, Illinois. Resides in Park Ridge, Illinois. BL. TL. Single. College: Illinois State.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #2 selection in June, 1974 Free Agent Draft by scout Lou Maguolo.

Dave has won two batting championships in two years as a professional . . . considered one of the brightest hitting stars in the organization . . . got a shocking treat last August 26 when the Yankees purchased him from West Haven for the final month of the season . . . saw only limited action however, and felt the frustration of that elusive first major league hit . . . didn't dampen Yankee hopes for this bright and mature Illinois State product, who was an All-American in 1974 prior to being selected in the second round of the June Free Agent draft.

DID YOU KNOW . . . The Yankees have won doubleheaders via shutouts in both games 12 times, most recently on July 21, 1972 when Peterson and Stottlemyre stopped the Angels. It's happened to the Yankees only four times, most recently on July 27, 1975 when Lee and Moret of Boston did the damage at Shea Stadium.

BLOMBERG, RONALD MARK (OF) (BLOOM-berg) #12

6-1, 200. Born on August 23, 1948 in Atlanta, Georgia. Resides in Riverdale, New York. BL. TR. Married Mara Goldsmith 10/25/70. Children: none. College: DeKalb College.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 (and baseball's #1) selection in June, 1967 Free Agent Draft, by scout Atley Donald.

Already one of the senior members of the Yankees, Ron Blomberg is looking to put one injury-free year together and realize his full potential . . . his lifetime .302 average has been established chiefly as a designated hitter against right handed pitching . . . Ron was baseball's first DH in fact, and his bat is in Cooperstown in commemoration of the event . . . was off to another fine year last season when a shoulder muscle began to ache him . . . each return brought an aggravated condition and he finally had to call it a season on July 12 . . . batted only twice against southpaws last year, going 0-1 with a walk . . . was 16-58 the year before . . . the nation's number one draft choice out of Druid Hills High School (Atlanta) in 1967, Ron has always been blessed with tremendous speed . . . came up as a first baseman, was moved to the outfield, back to first, and again to the outfield, which is now considered his prime defensive position . . . had some 200 basketball scholarship offers after high school . . . big year was 1973, when he hit .400 as late into the season as July 4th, making the covers of Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and Sport within a matter of weeks . . . last players to hit .400 that late had been Ted Williams and Stan Musial . . . a ferocious pull hitter, more of a line-drive sort than one who hits for power, but most feel the homers will come in greater frequency with steadier play . . . seldom strikes out . . . spends his winters in New York making numerous speaking appearances . . . operates a baseball day camp in New Jersey during the summer.

CHAMBLISS, CARROLL CHRISTOPHER (1B) #10

6-1, 209. Born on December 26, 1948 in Dayton, Ohio. Resides in Riverdale, New York. Married Audrey Garvin 9/30/73. Children: Russell (1). College: Mira Costa Junior College and UCLA.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians with Dick Tidrow and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

Chris enjoyed his finest big league season in 1975, his first full year as a Yankee . . . he hit a career high .304, which was 10th highest in the American League. He was also 10th in hits with 171, and tied for 3rd in doubles with 38, equalling the most by any Yankee since Bobby Richardson in 1962 . . . he had a career high of 72 runs batted in, and for the second year in a row, had the longest hitting streak on the club, 13. In 1974 he had an 18 game streak, tops on the club since Tony Kubek hit in 19 straight in 1961 . . . the American League Rookie of the Year in 1971, when he took Hawk Harrelson's first base job away at Cleveland after only 118 minor league games . . . in one year at UCLA, Chris hit .340 with 15 homers and 45 RBIs, the latter figures both school records. Named MVP in National Baseball Congress tournament in 1969, hitting .583 . . . Indians drafted him in January, 1970, and sent him to Wichita, where he was believed to be the first rookie to ever win a Triple-A batting title, hitting .342 . . . son of a Navy chaplain, who spent most of his youth traveling . . . lived in Hawaii for a time . . . also in St. Louis, where Arlene Henley, now Mrs Elston Howard, was a baby sitter for the Chambliss family . . . played football, basketball and baseball at Oceanside High in California . . . hit a 2-run single to beat Chicago 2-1 in his first major league game . . . burly in build and older looking than his 27 years, Chris is a mild-mannered, soft-spoken man, popular with teammates. Became a father last year for the first time, just two days before Father's Day.

6-2, 187. Born on April 6, 1954 in Lynchburg, Virginia, where he resides. TR. BR. Married Carole Cassidy 1/12/73. Children: Jennifer (2).

OBTAINED: Yankees' #2 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Myron Hayworth.

Spent his first year in spring training with the parent Yankees last season, and although he was among the least known faces in camp, quickly became one of the most impressive . . . came through with a brilliant 10-2 showing at West Haven before earning promotion to Syracuse at season's end . . . went on to have a fine winter playing for Bobby Cox in Venezuela . . . drafted second to Scott McGregor in June 1972 and has progressed steadily up the system . . . a five-letter man at Glass High in Lynchburg, Virginia, named all conference in 1972. Also played basketball, and had worked as a basketball official in previous off-seasons . . . a graduate of Little League, Babe Ruth League and American Legion ball in Virginia.

OBTAINED: Purchased from Memphis (Montreal organization), June 19, 1975.

Rich is looking to resume his career with a fresh and healthy start this season . . . a thyroid condition which developed last spring training was a major factor in a rather disappointing year for this one-time .319 hitter from the Orioles . . . he trained with Montreal last year but was forced onto the disabled list, and returned for only 13 National League games before the Yankees purchased him on June 19 . . . never got going with the bat in New York either, but showed flashes of his fine defensive ability in center field . . . best remembered as part of the 1-2 rookie punch with Al Bumbry in 1973 when he had his big year . . . after hitting .243 in 1973, he went to the Expos in the big trade with Dave McNally for Ken Singleton and Mike Torrez . . . an all-state baseball and football player at Garey High in Pomona, California, who also spent a year in a Detroit high school as a teammate of John Mayberry . . . drafted 21st by the Orioles in June, 1968, and reached the majors in August of 1972—going 9-16 in his first week with doubles his first two times up . . . led the Puerto Rican Winter League with a .352 average following the '72 season . . . small and slim but deceptively strong, as demonstrated by his 20 homers at Rochester in 1971.

6-0, 185. Born on September 13, 1949 in Fayetteville, Tennessee. Resides in Woodland Hills, California. BR. TR. Married Joani DeMatteo 2/1/69. Children: John (4½).

OBTAINED: Acquired from Minnesota Twins in exchange for Danny Walton on October 27, 1972.

In two years as backup catcher to Thurman Munson, Rick has proven to be one of the best at his trade in the league . . . a timely hitter who by no means is an easy out, and a fine catcher with a great throwing arm . . . loves the challenge of enemy baserunners . . . full of confidence, and the feeling he could be a regular on almost any other club . . . originally signed by the Twins, and later played 41 games for Minnesota before his trade to the Yankees . . . won the Most Valuable Player award in the New York-Penn League in 1968 . . . an All-Star in both 1970 and 1971 . . . a distant relative of former heavyweight champ Jack Dempsey . . . his wife is a Bronx girl . . . his father was a Broadway actor who once played a character named "Rikard" on the stage, hence Rick's middle name.

DINEEN, KERRY MICHAEL (OF) #47

5-11, 161. Born on July 1, 1952 in Englewood, N.J. Resides in Chula Vista, California. Married Renee Zuhlke 2/17/74. Children: none. College: University of San Diego.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #4 selection in June, 1973 Free Agent Draft by scout Don Lee.

Seldom has a player captured the fancy of the New York fans as rapidly as Kerry did last year . . . an unknown farm hand summoned unexpectedly into the big leagues when a rash of injuries beset the Yankee outfield . . . purchased from Syracuse on June 14 when Elliott Maddox went on the disabled list . . . although only hitting .227 for the Chiefs at the time, hits began to fall in quickly for Kerry . . . broke in on Bat Day before some 54,000 people . . . his daring base running became a treat for the fans, with the boyish good looks adding to his charm . . . Mrs. Babe Ruth sent him a "fan letter" . . . played seven games for the Yankees and hit .364 before he pulled up with a hamstring injury on June 19, joining the injury jinx . . . went back to Syracuse and raised his average to .241 after recovering . . . last year was his first in a big league training camp, as a non-roster player . . . led New York-Penn League in hitting in 1973 as a rookie . . . has good speed and is a good outfielder . . . although born in New Jersey, he moved to the West Coast when he was five. Part Cherokee Indian . . . distant cousin of Ken Henderson.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig homered in the same game 72 times—but only 16 occasions did they hit back-to-back homers.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Four Yankee pitchers hit grand slam home runs . . . Red Ruffing in 1933, Spud Chandler in 1940, Don Larsen in 1956, and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.

HUNTER, JAMES AUGUSTUS "Catfish" (P) #29

6-0, 205. Born on April 8, 1946 in Hertford, North Carolina, where he resides. TR. BR. Married Helen Overton 10/10/66. Children: Todd (6) and Kimberly (3).

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent, December 31, 1974.

One of the premier pitchers in the history of the American League . . . last season, became only the third man in league history to record five consecutive 20-win campaigns, joining Hall of Famers Walter Johnson and Lefty Grove . . . it was Catfish's first year as a Yankee, having joined the club on New Year's Eve amid one of the most sensational talent hunts in history, with 23 teams bidding into the millions for his services . . . Catfish led the league in complete games and innings pitched, becoming the first American Leaguer since Bob Feller (1946) to record 30 complete games, and the first Yankee since Carl Mays (1921) to post 30 . . . his 328 innings were the most by any Yankee since Mays had 337 (1921) . . . he was the first 20-game winner on the Yanks since 1970 . . . he was runner-up to Jim Palmer for Cy Young Award, an honor he captured in 1974 . . . Cat was third in the voting in 1973, fourth in 1972 . . . tied Palmer for the major league lead in victories, although he didn't record his first Yankee win until his fifth start . . . had a 1-hitter (vs. Tex.), a 2-hitter, three 3-hitters and three 4-hitters last year, while recording a career high of 7 shutouts . . . has 38 career shutouts, making him the active A.L. leader . . . produced the remarkable feat last year of pitching all but 18 of the maximum number of innings he could have worked . . . had 10 straight complete games between August 5-Sept. 11 . . . although a model of consistency after his slow start, his longest winning streak of the year was four, as he lost several one-run games . . . matched a career high of 12 strikeouts in his final appearance of the season . . . his 2.58 ERA was second in the league to Palmer, a department he led in 1974 . . . against his former Oakland teammates, he was 4-0 with a 0.75 ERA—3 runs and 13 hits (all singles) in 36 innings, with 7 walks and 28 strikeouts. Former batterymate Gene Tenace was 0-10 with 8 strikeouts . . . youngest of eight children, great athlete at Perquimans High School, as All-State in baseball and football, and a member of the 440 and mile relay teams in track . . . also played Little League and Babe Ruth League ball in Hertford, American Legion ball in Ahoskie, and semi-pro ball in Wanchese . . . a Cleveland fan as a youngster, with Jim Piersall his favorite player . . . his brothers helped develop his pitching career . . . scouted for Kansas City by Clyde Kluttz, who signed him despite a hunting accident which cost him the small toe on his right foot . . . remained on disabled list all of 1964, hence he never pitched in the minors . . . A's owner Charlie Finley nicknamed him Catfish to give him a colorful name . . . broke into national scene with 5-inning relief stint in 1967 All-Star game, the first ever played in TV's prime-time . . . On May 8, 1968, in only the 12th home game ever played by the Oakland A's, he pitched a perfect game agianst Minnesota, winning 4-0 . . . only regular season perfect game in the American League in the last 54 years . . . his emergence as a 20-game winner coincided with the rise of Oakland to the top of the Western Division, as he helped them to four straight division titles, and three straight World Championships, producing a 4-0 mark in Series play . . . won 21 games in 1973 despite missing a month after a Billy Williams line drive broke his right thumb in the All-Star Game, one of 7-All-Star teams he's made . . . an arbitration panel declared him a free-agent following the 1974 season, and the Yankees, led by scout Clyde Kluttz (who had moved over from the A's), signed him to a five-year contract . . . the publicity made him a household name, and he spent an active year doing television and magazine advertisements, and handling an overflow crowd of reporters from the day he got to spring training . . . has time for everyone, only seeking privacy on days he pitches . . . in off-season, tends to a 110-acre farm in Hertford raising peanuts, soy beans, turnips, etc. . . . a brother runs the farm during the season, while Cat resides in New Jersey . . . an outstanding fielder, and prior to the DH, one of the best hitting pitchers in baseball, with 149-657 (.227) lifetime, plus six homers and 51 RBIs.

LYLE, ALBERT WALTER "Sparky" (P) #28

6-1, 208. Born on July 22, 1944 in Dubois, Pennsylvania. Resides in New York City. TL. BL. Children: Dane (7) and Shane (2½).

OBTAINED: Acquired from Boston Red Sox in exchange for Danny Cater, March 22, 1972.

One of the top relief pitchers in baseball history . . . Encyclopedia gives him 152 career saves . . . has won or saved 111 games for the Yankees in four seasons . . . set an American League record in 1972 with 35 saves, broken a year later by John Hiller . . . has a brilliant 2.52 career ERA, and has twice been under 2.00 as a Yankee . . . master of the hard slider, and is a great intimidator on the mound, with psychology an important part of his game . . . a picture of confidence, with a flair for the dramatic . . . his trade to the Yankees in spring training of 1972, one of the best deals the Yankees ever made . . . first signed by Baltimore in 1964 after they saw him strike out 31 batters in a 17-inning sandlot game, never having played high school ball . . . Red Sox drafted him a year later, and he made the majors in 1967, contributing to a Red Sox pennant in his first year . . . an injury kept him out of the '67 World Series however . . . Fireman of the Year in 1967 by The Sporting News, Most Cooperative by New York press photographers in 1973 . . . finished third in the league in MVP voting in 1972 . . . member of 1973 All-Star team . . . holds Yankee records for most games (66) and most games finished (59), both in 1974 . . . made his fewest appearances since 1968 last year, and it was reflected by a rather disappointing year for Lyle, although his arm remained sound . . . although he picked up only 11 relief points, he still tied for the club lead . . . enjoys photography and is a free spirit who will attempt almost anything . . . takes his pitching quite seriously however, and all his efforts in 1976 will be pointed towards a comeback . . . admitted a genuine thrill by pitching in Yankee Stadium, and will seek to recapture that magic of the "Pomp and Circumstance" days, when the organist's tune accompanied his regal entrances from the bullpen.

MADDOX, ELLIOTT (OF) #27

5-11, 185. Born on December 21, 1948 in East Orange, New Jersey. Resides in Vaux Hall, New Jersey. BR. TR. Children: Donielle Laurisse (4). College: Graduate of University of Michigan's pre-law program.

OBTAINED: Purchased from the Texas Rangers on March 23, 1974.

In two years, Elliott has gone from a spare outfielder ticketed for the minors, to a top rated defensive center fielder and .300 hitter, whose loss helped take the Yankees out of the pennant race last year . . . he injured his right knee on June 13, and never played another inning, finally undergoing surgery in September . . . was hitting .307 at the time and fielding his usual brand of sensational . . . had captured the centerfield job the season before, transplanting Bobby Murcer to right, and surprising everyone with a .303 season . . . was en route to proving it authentic in 1975 when the injury occurred . . . first signed by Detroit after a fine baseball career at Michigan . . . played infield in Detroit, and finally dealt to Washington as part of Denny McLain deal . . . saw limited duty in Texas, and his sale to the Yankees during spring training of 1974 failed to stir much notice, until he played his way into the regular lineup in May . . . a product of Union (N.J.) High School . . . studied pre-law at Michigan, and still has hopes of becoming a lawyer some day . . . has good speed and a strong arm which produced 18 assists in 1974 . . . lists wearing the Yankee pinstripe uniform as his top thrill in baseball.

5-10, 170. Born on May 31, 1950 in La Junta, Colorado, where he resides. TL. BL. Married Carol Sario 1/3/70. Children: Jacen (4). College: Colorado State University.

OBTAINED: Signed as a free agent for 1972 season by scout Sam Suplizio.

Although he didn't join the Yankees until July 16 last season, Tippy led the staff in saves with eight, and by the end of the season was getting the call at all the crucial situations . . . showed a great deal more poise and control in his second big league season . . . passed over in the free agent draft, the Yankees signed him off the Colorado State campus in 1972 and a year later, as strictly a relief pitcher, he led the Carolina League with 15 saves . . . a non-roster pitcher in spring training of 1974, who impressed observers, and then in 1975, won the James P. Dawson Award as the top rookie in camp . . . might have made the club right then had not an injury to Dick Tidrow forced the Yankees to take a righthander north rather than Martinez . . . went to Syracuse and became a starting pitcher to get more work in . . . was 8-2 with a 2.05 ERA, 104 strike-outs and 35 walks in 110 innings . . . although of Spanish-Mexican descent, Tippy speaks little Spanish, and is strictly a Colorado product.

The jury's still out on Jim . . . he's had one good year for the Yankees and one he'd rather forget . . . but the way he manned shortstop in 1974, getting better at the plate as the season progressed, still offers hope for a return to form for the young Alabamian . . . broke in with Washington in 1971, and played in the famous "finale" at RFK Stadium, when the Senators forfeited to the Yankees . . . played for Billy Martin in Texas before the Yankees bought him in December, 1973 . . . played Little League and Babe Ruth League ball in Mobile . . . pitched a perfect game in the Alabama State Babe Ruth tourney . . . one of seven children in the Mason family . . . capable of playing second base as well as short . . . hit four doubles in one game in Texas in 1974, tying a record.

McGREGOR, SCOTT HOUSTON (P) #18

6-1, 188. Born on January 18, 1954 in El Segundo, California, where he resides. TL. BB. Single. Colleges: Loyola Marymount, El Camino.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 selection in June, 1972 Free Agent Draft by scout Jackie Warner.

Although only 22 years old, this is Scott's fourth big league camp . . . the Yanks' number one pick in the June, 1972 draft . . . a crafty pitcher in the Whitey Ford tradition, rather than a hard thrower . . . workhorse ability, who hadn't missed a start in years until a freak accident shortened his season at Syracuse last year . . . while sitting in the dugout during batting practice, a thrown ball hit him in the shoulder, and caused a slight fracture . . . he was healed in time to pitch winter ball in Venezuela . . . a star at El Segundo High, where he was a teammate of Kansas City's George Brett . . . was 18-1 with a 1.24 ERA in his senior year, striking out 158 men in 83 innings . . . was 58-6 overall with 496 strikeouts in 364 high school innings . . . a good hitting pitcher too . . . nicknamed "Scooter."

MUNSON, THURMAN LEE (C) #15

5-11, 195. Born on June 7, 1947 in Akron, Ohio. Resides in Canton, Ohio. BR. TR. Married Diane Dominick 9/21/68. Children: Tracy Lynn (6), Kelly (4½) and Michael (1). College: Kent State University.

OBTAINED: Yankees' #1 selection in June, 1968 Free Agent Draft by scout Gene Woodling.

Had one of the finest seasons in the American League last year, retaining his position as the most highly regarded catcher in the league . . . named to his fourth All-Star team, and chosen again by players at season's end to The Sporting News All-Star team . . . voted a Gold Glove for the third consecutive year . . . his season a model of consistency as his average never fell below .311, and he wound up third in the league behind Carew and Lynn in batting . . . was also third in hits with 190, 164 of which were as a catcher, the rest as a designated hitter, left fielder, right fielder, first baseman, and third baseman, as he expanded his versatility . . . tied for 5th in the league in RBIs as he became the first Yankee since 1964 to drive in 100 . . . Thurm batted safely in 117 of the 157 games he played, 56 of them producing two or more hits, and 14 three or more hits . . . he led the league in hitting from May 4-May 25 . . . his lifetime batting average of .286 is tied for 14th on the all-time Yankee list . . . the Yanks' number one draft choice of 1968, played only 99 minor league games before winning the Rookie of the Year award in 1970, his first of three .300 seasons . . . a year later, he made only one error and fielded .998, tying Elston Howard's Yankee catching record . . . an All-American at Kent State . . . a great competitor, gifted with unusually good speed for a catcher . . . rated as probably the finest all-around athlete on the club . . . the current link to the great Yankee catching tradition of Dickey-Berra-Howard.

RIVERS, JOHN MILTON "Mickey" (OF) #17

5-10, 165. Born on October 30, 1948 in Miami, Florida where he resides. BL. TR. Single. College: Miami-Dade Community College.

OBTAINED: Acquired from California Angels along with Ed Figueroa for Bobby Bonds, December 11, 1975.

Might be the fastest man in all of baseball . . . his 70 stolen bases last season were 30 better than runner-up Claudell Washington . . . caught only 16 times . . . as a left hand hitter, beats out scores of ground balls each year . . . helped Angels to a record 220 steals last season . . . poses a threat to one of the oldest Yankee records—74 stolen bases in one season (Fritz Maisel, 1914) . . . also considered by some a threat to Ty Cobb's American League record of 96 . . . hit over .300 in all five of his minor league seasons . . . grew up in Miami as a great Yankee fan, rooting for Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris. He's called Mickey because of that loyalty . . . attended Northwestern High in Miami, lettering in baseball, football, basketball and track . . . attended Miami-Dade Community College North and signed with the Braves in 1969, in a deal which sent Hoyt Wilhelm to Atlanta . . . has led league in triples each of last two years, although he missed the last five weeks of the 1974 season with a broken wrist.

DID YOU KNOW . . . The top 1-2 punch the Yankees ever had in stolen bases was in 1914, when Fritz Maisel set the club record of 74 steals, and Roger Peckinpaugh added 38 for 112. The Yanks stole 252 bases that year.

ROBSON, THOMAS JAMES (DH-1B) #48

6-3, 215. Born January 15, 1946 in Rochester, N.Y. Resides in Phoenix, Arizona. BR. TR. Married Jeanette Ivie 8/24/68. Children: David (6), Adam (3). College: Phoenix College, Utah State, and Arizona State.

OBTAINED: Drafted from Spokane (Texas organization), December 9, 1975.

Power is this man's game . . . has hit 197 career minor league home runs, and his 1973-1974 production was the best 2-year total in all of baseball . . . the designated hitter rule a great one for Tom . . . named Most Valuable Player in Pacific Coast League in 1974 . . . works out in winters under a boxer's program . . . impressed the Yankees last year with some belts during spring training . . . Yankees drafted him under the delayed draft at the Winter meetings, making the selection at 11:06 P.M., with an 11:59 deadline . . . the Minor League Player of the Year in 1973, and PCL MVP in 1974.

SAWYER, RICHARD CLYDE (P) #41

6-2, 205. Born on April 7, 1948 in Bakersfield, California, where he resides. TR. BR. Married Mary Milligan 7/18/68. Children: none. Colleges: Bakersfield College and San Fernando State.

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians as part of a three-team trade, March 19, 1974. Yankees sent Jerry Moses to Detroit, Tigers sent Jim Perry to Cleveland, Indians sent Sawyer and Walt Williams to New York, Tigers sent Ed Farmer to New York.

Rick has had some fine minor league credentials, and is hoping to at last land a major league job . . . the leading winner in the Texas League in 1973, which prompted the Yankees to obtain him from the Cleveland organization . . . a mainstay of the Syracuse pitching staff for the past two seasons, with brief appearances in New York . . . Indians drafted him number five in 1968 . . . Rick was a center on his high school football team, also participating in baseball and basketball . . . All-Conference at Bakersfield College in 1967 and 1968 . . . has a lifetime 73-49 record in the minors . . . his 13 victories were second in the International League last year, and he topped the circuit with four shutouts.

STANLEY, FREDERICK BLAIR (IF) #11

5-10, 168. Born on August 13, 1947 in Farnhamville, Iowa. Resides in Tempe, Arizona. BR. TR. Married Lynn Geyer 6/26/68. Children: Tracie Lynn (4½), and Brian (2½). College: Rio Hondo.

OBTAINED: Acquired from San Diego Padres in exchange for George Pena on October 24, 1972.

Given the opportunity to play regularly last season, Fred responded with his most satisfying season, and turned into the Yankees' most pleasant surprise . . . did an outstanding job for the Yankees at short, and contributed a lot of big hits . . . seemed to be a good luck charm for Bobby Bonds, who hit well with Fred on base . . . the Yankees are Fred's fourth major league club (previously with Pilots-Brewers, Indians and Padres), but the first he ever played 100 games for . . . holds the distinction of being the last Yankee to hit a grand slam in the old Yankee Stadium, connecting on September 8, 1973 against Milwaukee—his only Yankee home run . . . raised in Whittier, California, where he played Little League, Colt League and American Legion ball . . . a business major at Rio Hondo, later a sergeant in the Army . . . tried switch-hitting for a few years, but now strictly bats righthanded . . . originally signed by Houston in 1966.

TIDROW, RICHARD WILLIAM (P) #19

6-4, 230. Born on May 14, 1947 in San Francisco, California. Resides in Kansas City, Missouri. TR. BR. College: Chabot College (Hayward, Calif.).

OBTAINED: Acquired from Cleveland Indians with Chris Chambliss and Cecil Upshaw in exchange for Fritz Peterson, Steve Kline, Fred Beene and Tom Buskey on April 26, 1974.

With the arrival of Catfish Hunter last year, Dick Tidrow was converted into a relief pitcher, and he responded to the call with six wins, five saves, and a fine 3.12 ERA . . . the 11 relief points tied him with Sparky Lyle for the club lead . . . Dick began the season with a small fracture in his pitching hand, and didn't come off the disabled list until April 19 . . . another break, this time in his left wrist, shelved him for the season on August 19, but he did pitch 37 times between those dates, and was often the man turned to in tight spots . . . Dick was the American League's Rookie Pitcher of the Year in 1972 when he won 14 and had a 2.77 ERA with the Indians . . . was the number two starter to Gaylord Perry on the Tribe staff . . . had a 2.45 ERA in relief for the Yanks in 1974 after coming over in the big April trade . . . originally drafted in the January 1967 draft by the Indians, but military duty limited his progress until after the 1968 season.
